Please note:

1-College policy allows an undergraduate student to take no more than two graduate classes. A student must have a GPA of 3.0 or higher to take graduate classes while an undergraduate student and must have senior standing.

2-If the student's grade point average (GPA) is below 3.0, he/she will not be accepted into the master's program.

3- See master's planner for courses required in the fourth summer and fifth year.

Consult with your academic advisors to review your academic progress and your course selection.

- The following course requirement exceptions may apply depending upon your choice of second major:

If your second major is:

Then:

Biology	Take MAT 200 as a Biology correlate
English	Instead of taking RAL 225, you can take LIT 310
History	Your history major should already cover the US History required correlate.
Math or MST	You will need to take MAT 127 instead of taking MAT 105.
Sociology	In addition to taking MAT 105, you will need to take STA 115 or STA 215 as a Sociology correlate.
Spanish
Psychology	SPE 203 will count as a Psychology option
